A TOAST TO OUR HERITAGE

At Tivoli Doelen, every cocktail tells a story—woven from the lives of those who once walked our corridors and left behind a trace of their spirit.

We begin with Rembrandt, whose Night Watch once hung on our very walls. In these drinks, you'll find echoes of chiaroscuro—bold contrasts, deep complexity, and a quiet reverence for the Dutch master who saw the world in light and shadow.

Then, we honour Empress Elisabeth of Austria, known to history as Sisi. Her stay with us brought a touch of imperial grace to Amsterdam. Her cocktails are delicate yet defiant, inspired by her love of travel, poetry, and the freedom she so fiercely sought.

And finally, The Beatles, who in 1964 chose our hotel for their only visit to the Netherlands. Their presence stirred the city, and their legacy lives on in cocktails that are playful, rebellious, and full of rhythm—each one a tribute to the spirit of a generation.

To accompany these stories, our food menu pays homage to Dutch tradition. We serve haringhapje, bitterballen, and a selection of local cheeses, alongside genever, the original Dutch spirit. In doing so, we honour one of the promises of our brand: to remain loyal to the local experience, and to offer you a taste of place, memory, and meaning.

SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

REMBRANDT'S LEGACY

Rembrandt van Rijn lived next door to our hotel and used its first floor to entertain aristocrats and sketch his masterpieces. His iconic Night Watch hung on our wall for over 70 years before moving to the Rijksmuseum. That very wall remains untouched in our Rembrandt Suite—a silent witness to Dutch art history.

SISI'S ESCAPE

Empress Elisabeth of Austria—known as Sisi—booked 40 rooms at the Doelen during her stay in the late 1800s. She came seeking the healing Dutch sea air and stayed under the pseudonym “Gravin van Hoynems.” Her suite still carries the elegance and quiet romance of her presence.

THE BEATLES BEAT

On 5 June 1964, The Beatles stayed at Tivoli Doelen during their only visit to the Netherlands. They occupied suites on the first floor, waved to fans from the balcony, and even boarded a canal boat directly from the hotel's jetty. The city was electrified—fans climbed walls, swam in the canals, and filled the streets in a frenzy of admiration. Their original reservation is still on display, marking a moment when timeless heritage met the pulse of pop culture.

- Strawberry Fields
Strawberry-infused brandy | crème de cacao
strawberry syrup | almond foam

16
- Yellow Submarine
Almond-infused jenever | amaretto | lemon

15
- The Quiet Yellow Submarine
